

ALTAMONT ENTERPRISE

ALTAMONT, N. Y. NOV. 9, 1894.

FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

McKownville.

Richard VanBeusekom has moved upon and is overseer of the property of the Albany Country Club.

Fourteen of our temperance people attended the prohibition lecture given by Mr. Veeder at Guilderland.

A number of workmen are at present employed by the Albany Country Club in making improvements on their property recently purchased of Wm. Knowles.

A sale and supper will be given by the Ladies' Sewing society, at the church, next Thursday and Friday evenings. Laura Jennings, Lavina VanSchoick and Tina LaGrange are soliciting money for a large bible and stand which will be awarded on Friday evening to the one who has secured the largest amount. The bible was obtained through the efforts of Mrs. Frederic Crouse.

9 November 1894

Richard Van Beusekom has moved upon and is overseer of the property of the Albany Country Club

A number of workmen are at present employed by the Albany Country Club in making improvements on their property recently purchased of Wm. Knowles.

5 April 1895

Wm. Knowles has moved from his former residence, now owned and occupied by the Albany Country Club, into the house which he bought of Henry Drumm;

15 April 1895

Mr. W. Stevens now has charge of the Country Club grounds, in place of Mr. R. VanBeusekom.

ALTAMONT ENTERPRISE.

ALTAMONT, N. Y. APR. 5, 1895.

FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

McKownville.

Little Arthur Whitbeck, while going home from school one day last week, was run over by a wagon and received a slight injury to his hand and wrist.

An unusually large number of removals have been made in this village this spring, among which we note the following: Lewis Gemlick has moved in his new house; Wm. Knowles has moved from his former residence, now owned and occupied by the Albany County Club, into the house which he bought of Henry Drumm; John Bent now occupies the premises known as the "Hilton" farm, which he bought of Mr. Zeihm; Henry Hein has taken possession of the blacksmith shop and house which he purchased of his father, Christian Hein; Charles Winne has moved in A. C. Abram's tenement house; Harry Stevens has rented a house of John Hein; and Charles Cameron has moved into Charles Albright's tenement house.

ALTAMONT ENTERPRISE.

ALTAMONT, N. Y. APR. 15, 1895.

FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

McKownville.

Mr. W. Stevens now has charge of the Country Club grounds, in place of Mr. R. VanBeusekom.